

Chaplain
To be filled in each year

Role: Chaplain
Responsible to: Director/Coach Leader

A Chaplain is a role model to young people in what they say and do. They are full and equal members of the Staff Team. They are to encourage, support and affirm the faith and unique gifts God has given to all. They will endeavour to help staff and young people to connect acts of service of Pilgrimage with faith in Jesus the servant King. Chaplains will try to help connect the faith experience in Lourdes with people's lives back at home. Chaplains will support their Coach Leader's decisions and will actively support all the rules of the Pilgrimage.

- To help plan and deliver types of worship and encourage staff and young people to take a 'full, conscious and active' part.
- Will help explain the significance of different services.
- Will participate in coach meetings.
- Will be sensitive to issues around race, gender and sexuality.
- Will maintain a professional relationship with all young people and staff.
- Will assist the Coach Leader in ensuring the safety and well being of young people throughout the journey and whilst in Lourdes.
- Will help assist other coaches with services as requested.
- Will support staff to ensure singing in bars is halted a 11.30 pm and in making sure that young people return safely a 12 midnight.
- Will make themselves familiar with the Child Protection Procedures of the Archdiocesan Youth Pilgrimage.
